

Menorah Lighting – Nov 30th – 6:00 p.m.

The Florham Park Annual Menorah Lighting will take place on, Tuesday, Nov. 30th at 6 p.m. The menorah is located in front of the Gazebo at 111 Ridgedale Ave. in Florham Park. The ceremony will be celebrated by Cantor Jonathan Comisar, spiritual leader of Congregation Beth Torah in Florham Park, who will lead the community in lighting the Hanukkah candle with the assistance of the children from Congregation Beth Torah's Religious School. Rabbi Shalom Lubin, of Chabad of SE Morris County, will also participate in the ceremony.

The lighting of the Hanukkah Menorah is always a festive occasion and we always enjoy the singing of songs and of course the eating the traditional "latkes". It's a fun evening for all. Hope to see you there! All are welcome!

This activity is not endorsed by the Florham Park Board of Education.